Wall of Fame for Distinguished Alumni and Educators to Honor Four More SHS Graduates During Alumni Weekend

Douglas Sheldon, '59, Chairman of the Wall of Fame gencies. His program has been the top rated AM morning Nominating Committee, announced today that, after many show in the area for many years. months of research and deliberation the committee has 2009.

The Committee's recommendations were presented to the munity accolade, the Bill and Sylvia Bouton Community SCSAA Board of Directors where unanimous support Service Award. was given.

July 19, 2009.

The Inductees for the Wall of Fame Class of 2009 are:

- Charles D'Imperio, Class of 1967
- Jack Deuel, Class of 1943
- Steven Shaeffer, Class of 1969
- Carolyn Mang Weeks, Class of 1959

Charles D'Imperio Class of 1967 Excellence in Broadcast Journalism

Chuck grew up in Sidney in a family that included 10 Sidney alums. He began his broadcasting career in 1989 voice of morning radio in the Oneonta area. His program is a mixture of country music, talk, news and interviews. More than that, it is community service at its best. Chuck's audience is devoted to him and he has served them well, promoting flu shot clinics, filling food

Alumni Weekend 2009 Will Feature New Events

Those attending the 2009 Reunion Weekend will find several new activities added to the three-day event. The Saturday night social which will be held at the Sidney Moose Lodge, will include a Casino Night sponsored by the Moose. Open to the public, this should be a popular activity with a chance to win cash prizes. Tents set up in various locations will also allow those who just want to "catch-up" to do just that. The evening will also feature the band Splash! beginning at 9pm.

According to Maggie Barnes, Community Liaison for The individuals will be inducted at the Sidney Central Fox Hospital in Oneonta, Chuck "is fiercely proud of his School Alumni Association All Class Reunion Luncheon, upbringing in Sidney. He speaks of it often on his show and in his books and I think it sits at the core of his popularity. Sidney, his father's store, the school, local events, In 1963 Jack returned to work in the family business in all of this gave Chuck a firm moral grounding that he has never forgotten."

> Chuck's writing career includes published memoirs of growing up in Sidney that have been extremely popular, striking a chord with many of his contemporaries who responded to him with their own memories of growing up in Sidney and the strong values imbued by that experience.

> Since 1989, he has written more than 50 articles for news outlets concerning the entertainment business. Chuck has two more works coming out this year including a reference guide to the region's monuments and great memorials. His passion for Sidney, Oneonta and New York State make him a valuable advocate for the area. Chuck lives with his wife, Trish, in Oneonta. They have four children.

'60's will remember fondly the dances held in the summer at the very same basketball courts.

Saturday afternoon will also feature the Sand Volleyball Tournament that achieved such success in 2008. There is still time to get a team together. Contact information is available on the website www.sidneyalumni.org

A Scotch Doubles Bowling Tournament will be held during the weekend at Twentieth Century Lanes in Sidney. Whenever you have a chance, stop by and bowl your set of three games, register your score and wait for the winners and prizes to be announced on Sunday at the Luncheon. The cost for bowling is $10 per twosome.

Jack Deuel Class of 1943 Commitment to Community Cultural Life

As with so many of us, Jack Deuel credits his choice of a lifelong career to the influence of a special member of the faculty at Sidney High School. Although his first experience acting took place in the fourth grade, he was encouraged to attend Ithaca College and major in Theatre by Miss Elsworth, an English teacher at SHS.

Many Ithaca graduates went on to "do theatre" on Broadway and Jack was no exception. He went from Broadway to Hollywood and enjoyed a successful career there.

Sidney. At that same time the Chamber of Commerce of Bainbridge, Sidney and Unadilla united in an effort to encourage cultural activity in the area. They sought out Jack and he agreed to be the director of the newly formed Tri Town Theatre.

Since then he has worked tirelessly to recruit talented, enthusiastic thespians and the numerous crews needed for each of the some 150 plus productions that have been mounted since 1963. The key to their success has been Jack Deuel. According to Marlene Wilcklow, "He was the power and enthusiasm behind every production. He was the person who found the house manager, the costume director, the props people and the stage manager. He was the person who found professional actors when local talent could not be found for a particular role."

There are several ways in which we hope to accomplish this. The simplest way is that you will read this, go directly to our website www.sidneyalumni.org and join using Paypal. The membership fee is still a surprisingly low $10 and $5 for those 65 and older. You can also send your money and membership application to the Association address: SCSAA, PO Box 2186, Sidney, New York 13838,

Members of Anniversary classes are eligible for a drawing with a prize of $25 for their class treasury. All that is needed from the class is a total of 5 new or renewing memberships before Alumni Weekend and the class is eligible to enter the drawing which will take place during the Alumni Luncheon, Sunday July 19. Five is the minimum-how about being the class with 100% of your classmates becoming current members of the Association?

Saturday morning the Nature Walk, a core activity for many years, will again take place at the newly expanded Ed Roelle Nature Trail. The trail has been expanded by a mile. Be sure to take the walk and collect your souvenir button designed by Mary Ann Maynard Cramton.

The Annual March of the Classes will take place this year at the track at Alumni Field at the High School. The March will be organized by the Class of '59 who are celebrating their 50th Reunion year. The line forms at 11am.

Saturday afternoon the sports fields and basketball courts adjacent to the Moose Club will be available to alumni and at 4PM a Hot Dog and Hamburger Barbecue will be held for all those who don't have anniversary dinners or picnics to attend (or even for those who do and want to stop by and see what is going on.) A fee for the barbecue will be charged.

The Sidney Municipal Pool will be open for family swim from 5PM until 8PM. Bring your bathing suit and re-create your part in the Aquacade if you remember it! There will be music, and some alumni from the '50s and (one of the two must be an alumnus) Hours for bowling are: Thursday and Friday evening after 6:30PM and Saturday beginning at 1PM.

There is a time change for the Annual All Class Reunion Luncheon on Sunday. The social hour will start at 11am immediately following the Alumni Memorial Service at the Nature Trail at 10:30.

The luncheon program will begin at 11:45am and will be followed by the very prestigious Wall of Fame induction ceremony.

For a complete listing of all the events of Alumni Weekend, see page 17 and check the alumni website for the most up to date information. www.sidneyalumni.org

Help Your Association Increase Membership Numbers in 2009

2009 is the year the Membership Committee of the SCSAA is making a concerted effort to increase the number of paid members of the Alumni Association.

There will be membership tables and Alumni representatives at all venues during Alumni Weekend so that it will be a simple task to make sure that you are supporting your Association and making it possible for us to keep producing Alumni Weekend and to keep publishing the newsletter that you are reading.

We also challenge you who are already members to find at least one other person and encourage them to join. How quickly we can double and triple our membership list if you do that!

While you are filling out that membership application, either online or the hard copy, make sure we have your updated address information, including your current email address.

President's Annual Message

To: SCSAA Board of Directors and Membership:

As President of the SCSAA, it is my duty and privilege to deliver the Annual Report on the State of the Association. The purpose of this report is to tell the entire SCSAA Membership where we are and where we are going. The report describes the SCSAA's progress and accomplishments, and the challenges of the Association since last year's report. As we begin our second decade, the "state" of the Association is relatively sound, financially and organizationally. The Association's commitment and dedication to our founding purposes has not wavered. All its energies remain concentrated in the pursuit of strengthening the bond among Alumni, Community and School, and in the celebration of our common traditions. Each year the Association rises to the challenge and channels its limited resources to sustain the momentum and maintain the standard of excellence in all our undertakings, and the past year was no exception. The goals and objectives of the past year were achieved, even with some minor disappointments along the way.

In addition to producing Alumni Weekend, compiling, writing, editing, and publishing "Reflections", maintaining the quality of the Alumni Website, and hosting the Wall of Fame and Sports Hall of Fame Inductions, our objectives for 2008 also included:

- Raffling the Marriott Time Sharing Property that was donated by Dick Germond '63
  - o Establishing a Memorial Scholarship in the name of Kristina Germond with the proceeds of the raffle
- Implementing SCSAA 10th Anniversary Celebration activities and initiatives
- Participating in the SCS Class of 2008 Graduation ceremony
- Developing a strategic Overview of the Association (see article)
- Establishing an Alumni Veterans Memorial
- Increasing Membership

The editor's corner

Welcome to the spring 2009 issue of Reflections! The Association is in full planning mode for the Annual Alumni Reunion Weekend—July 17-19. All reunion plans are listed in this issue. If there are any classes planning some sort of gathering and we have not listed them here, please contact Ray Taylor, our webmaster, and those plans will be posted well before Alumni Weekend.

The article on the front page describes some of the changes that you'll find during Alumni Weekend, 2009. It promises to be a really good time.

Membership is a theme in this issue. The Association is counting on you to become or renew your membership so that we can continue to fund our programs throughout the year, as well as publish two issues of Reflections.

The names of the inductees to our prestigious Wall of Fame and Sports Hall of Fame are listed here. There are so many Sidney alums who have excelled in sports and/ or become successful in many different ways; all the while giving back to others. I am proud to feature them in this issue.

Time share Raffle:

The Marriott Time Share Raffle was the most ambitious fund-raising initiative undertaken by the SCSAA. Our goal was to raise $50,000 by selling 500 tickets at $100 each. The timeshare property in Newport Beach, California was a donation to the SCSAA by Dick Germond '63 and Kristina Germond. The Board agreed with Dick Germond to divide the proceeds from the Raffle 50/50 – half to the general treasury of the Association and the other half to a scholarship in memory of Dick's wife Kristina, who passed away last year. In the last month of the raffle, extraordinary efforts were made to stimulate sales. Promotions on our website, telephone and e-mail campaigns and letter writing appeals by several of our Directors, finally yielded $15,000. When measured by any standards, this initiative was a success. Dick Germond deserves our thanks and gratitude for his generous donation and for his leadership during the campaign.

Kristina Germond Memorial Scholarship:

Since we did not realize our hoped-for financial goals, I proposed that the majority of the funds raised be dedicated to the scholarship fund in lieu of the 50/50 split. A task force was formed to make a recommendation to the Board on the split of the funds. Through the efforts of the task force, under the direction of Director, Jon DeTemple, our objective was achieved and the scholarship became a reality. This scholarship was established, at the request of Dick Germond, for SHS students who will be pursuing a degree in teaching. The task force decided to dedicate $11,000 of the raffle proceeds to fund the scholarship. The recommendation was approved by the Board. Since this will be a perpetual Scholarship Fund a recommendation is being made to the Board to establish the Kristina Germond Memorial Scholarship Committee as standing committee with Dick Germond as the chairman. This proposal will be an agenda topic at the June 2009 Board meeting.

10th Anniversary Celebration:

Our 10th Anniversary celebration and promotion campaign was a success. The 10th anniversary celebration began with a contest for

If you take a look at the Alumni Ne you'll note that from 2004 we jump back 1985. We'd love to hear from those S grads and fill that almost 20 year gap news. If you know any of them-tell them to let us know what they are doing!

the Association's participation in the fall 2008 Homecoming activities and parade. The winning logo was featured at all SCSAA activities, on our Website and in the spring issue of "Reflections". The SCSAA hosted a float in the Hometown Day Parade, attended the SCS 2008 graduation ceremony, delivered a welcome message to the graduates, and referenced the 10th anniversary in every article submitted to the press.

SCSAA Banners:

Be sure to look for the SCSAA banners during future Alumni Weekends and Homecoming Weekends. The banners were first presented in 2008 to commemorate the SCSAA 10th anniversary. Jessica Wheeler presented the idea and chose the perfect style to convey the image of the SCSAA. The feedback from the community about the banners was very positive.

Participation at 2008 Graduation:

An SCSAA objective to participate in the high school graduation program was realized in 2008. A letter from the SCSAA welcoming the graduates to the Association was read by Superintendent Sandy Cooper. The letter was a step toward increasing the Association's visibility with the younger classes and hopefully will lead to a greater participation in the future

Alumni Veterans' Memorial:

When the idea for a veteran's memorial was presented to the SCSAA, it was immediately embraced by Directors, as an initiative for advancing our founding purposes. Director Jim McIntyre had a very strong interest in this initiative and was appointed as chair of this sub-committee. The Sidney Cemetery Association approached us to partner with them because it was their goal to establish a veteran's park inside the cemetery. The SCSAA is open to working with the Cemetery Association as long as the SCSAA is allotted a place in the park for our memorial and our memorial is distinct and separate from any other veterans memorial erected in the park. Also, the SCSAA was clear that we will not be the chief source of funds for developing the park.

of Fred Videtto, class ot 1928. Fred wrote often for this newsletter. He loved sharing his memories of his time at SHS and his knowledge of the old schools and those who attended them. He amazed us by being able to identify nearly all the people in a 1923 school photo we received. He was an invaluable resource.

Fred was one of the first inductees to our Wall of Fame for Distinguished Alumni and Educators because of his community service both in Sidney and in his home of Parish, New York. We will miss him.

My notes to fellow alumni: "I've owned my own CPA firm for 14 years. A lot of time is spent with our son as he plays many sports and is on traveling hockey and soccer teams. I have extremely fond memories of my childhood and growing up in Sidney. I am especially grateful for the quality education I received and teachers I had in Sidney. Living in the South now I see how grade schools are not that great and that makes me appreciate the schooling we had. You guys do great work and I love reading the mailing! Thanks.'

Sara (was "Dusty") Duke. Significant other: Matthew Schneer. Vocation: Curator, Library of Congress. Hobbies: Reading and studying. Children: Sylvia (10) and Sasha (8). My notes to fellow alumni: "It's been a busy year for me. My husband and I completely gutted our house so our daughter who is handicapped and medically fragile can have a bedroom and bathroom on the ground floor. We all camped out in the three bedrooms upstairs from February to September. It feels great not to do dishes in a bathtub anymore! My work at the Library of Congress continues to be both compelling and fun. I am now preparing an exhibition of original Herblock cartons (Washington Post, 1946-2001), which will open in October to celebrate the centenary of his birth. I am now the secretary of the board of our congregation - Beth Chai, which is Jewish, secular and open to mixed religious households. Sasha, my 8-year old, has been studying Hebrew, at his own request. My other major free-time activity is studying German in anticipation of the arrival of a large collection from Europe to the Library of Congress."

My husband is a software engineer. I got my license to drive a motorcycle two years ago and I just love to ride. Most of all I enjoy my family. My husband and son also ride motorcycles so we make it a family affair."

> 1972. Linda Cole Thomas "We have quite a few Sidney Alumni in our family. It starts with Bill ('72) and Linda (Cole) Thomas ('72). We own and operate Sidney Auto Body - here in beautiful downtown Sidney. Our oldest son, Jim ('95) is married to Heather (Gregory) Thomas ('95). They have 2 beautiful children, Caila who is 4 and Cole who is 1 1/2. Jim is a civil engineer for Delaware County and Heather is a quality control supervisor for Covidien. Their home is in Bloomville. Our middle son, Gary('96) has a home outside of Syracuse NY and works for Progressive Insurance. You may have seen him driving around in his Progressive vehicle! Our youngest son, Matt ('03) and Tiffany Mott ('03) live in Parish, NY -the heart of the NYS snow belt. Anyone who knows Matt, knows how appropriate that is! He is a civil engineer for a firm in Syracuse and Tiffany is teaching at elementary schools in the local area and working on her Masters in Education. We all enjoy the Reflections newsletter. Keep up the good work!"

> 1971. Sandy Blair Reddig. "I have pursued the art of portraiture for 20 years. I paint subjects of all ages, including individuals and family groups. My works hang in private and public collections including the Columbus Metro Library. There is nothing more interesting to capture than the "life and excitement" of an individual. Pastels and oils are my preferred mediums, providing permanence so that all the work to become family heirlooms. I meet with a client to discuss the commissioned portrait. Desired pose, number of subjects, size and other pertinent details are discussed. I take a series of photos or use the client's favorite photos, and create a sketch for approval of composition. The painting then is done in my studio. I continually refine my technique and am committed to making each commission an easy, enjoyable process. I can be reached at sandyr@studiosonhigh.com or by appointment through Studios on High, 614-461-6487 or Artist's Studio, 614-875-4900."

Dottie Kinch Georgia "Hi to all of my friends from Sidney High School. I am now engaged to a wonderful man by the name of Harold. I never thought that love at an older age could be so great. I live in Palm City, Florida now and really love it here. I lived in Fort Lauderdale for over thirty years, so I feel like I really belong in Florida. I had a Great Granddaughter born on December 14, and that was so great, as it was my birthday also. Have a great reunion this year. I have five wonderful kids and eight Grandkids. Who ever thought? Sure do miss Sidney."

1956. Jim McTighe. "Betty and I, along with our friends, took a trip to New Mexico this past fall. We flew into Albuquerque, rented a car and drove to Santé Fe, which was our home base. While we were there we took several side trips and one included Las Cruces to see Dave Ineich ('56) and Chris. What a delightful time we had. We had a delicious dinner at their house, saw their new home and they so graciously gave us a tour of the area. The tour cost LaVerne, our friend and Betty some money (many shops) but, oh well, they enjoyed it. We met the next morning for breakfast and then parted ways. Needless to say the visit was too short but the highlight of our visit to New Mexico . It was so good to talk about old times and catch up on

These Friends Meet Every Year!

During the Big East Basketball Tournament at Madison Square Garden this past March five friends from the class of 1980 gathered to share some laughs and Years went by and marriage and children attempted to interrupt our tradition. But, we only got stronger as the game turned into a bi-annual event. One wife asked her husband at this point, "Why do you have to do this twice a year?" My advice to him was to explain that scheduling it three times a year could possibly prove too difficult.

The children graduated from High School, and the game continued. Sometimes twice a year and sometimes only once, but now the nightly gathering had metamorphosed into a weekend. Chris, Gerry and I traveled to Phoenix and visited Dennis where we attended an Arizona State University Football game, and a Cowboys vs Cardinals game. We Kacy, Jenna, Joshua, and GraceAnn. My notes to fellow alumni: "I am enjoying my retirement. I spend 6 months of the year in Binghamton and 6 months of the year in Florida. I love to read Reflections. Keep up the good work in putting it together."

watch some of the best basketball teams in the nation compete.

Since graduation, Dennis Laraway, Gerry Palmer, Chris Zieno, Andy Zieno and Jeff Warren have met up at least once per year to play poker. Initially the game would begin on a late Saturday afternoon and end near 4am. We'd all then sleep a few hours before returning to our respective homes, tired, hung over, and wondering how the night went so fast. Planning the next gathering would begin almost immediately, even though it'd be a year away. The venue for several gatherings was either Gerry's barn, or the Rockdale Rod and Gun Club. played poker every other second, and actually listened to Sidney High play a State Semi-final football contest while enjoying a friendly game of Black Jack.

The same group of four spent a weekend in New York City a few summers ago and traveled to the soon to be demolished Shea Stadium. Gerry scored some tickets and we watched the Mets implode in the 9th inning, thus allowing the visiting Yankees to prevail.

On occasion over the recent years we were able to convince Tony Snow, also from the class of 1980, to attend our game. Scott and Steve Rosa (1981) have joined us the past two summers at my home in Margaretville, NY for a weekend of poker. To you folks out there, a bit of advice, don't play poker with twins!

As the March 2009 NYC weekend came to a close, we discussed meeting in Las Vegas, Chicago and Texas. Then, as always, during the following week, each contacted the others to discuss what a great time we had, and what a great thing we have going, and how it all started in High School 30 years ago.

Don't forget to wish Louise Marnell Hoegger, Class of 1928, a Happy Birthday!. Louise celebrated her 100th birthday on February 3, 2009

ARE YOU AN EXPERIENCED VOLLEYBALL PLAYER... & OVER 50?

If so and you're planning to attend Alumni Weekend '09, we need at least 6 players to complete our squad of Canardly Warrior's to compete with the younger members of the Tribe in a sand court tournament on Saturday, July 18th (FYI - This is NOT a jungle ball tournament.... official VB rules will apply). ## Reflections on the Susquehanna River By R. E. Smith Jr.

A red ball of setting sun has just disappeared behind the western hills beyond the river in front of me. It's 8:45 and daylight still shines on a patch of river water framed between two large dark silver maple tree trunks leaning from the east bank of the river.

Street lights posted along a bridge now reflect in the slowly moving current. The water moves relentlessly, as it has for thousands of years, but it's course and condition has not much changed since I explored it as a boy in the late 1940s. My teenage years were spent about five miles upstream in the village of Sidney.

The bridge here is new. In June of 2006 a massive flood damaged the old state Rt. 206 highway bridge. Water flowed 20 feet or so over the terraces where I now sit in a small RV campground just across the river from the village of Bainbridge, N. Y. Now I could walk across the river on gravel bars and in slowmoving water not waist high.

Route 206 leap-frogs east to west over the Delaware and Susquehanna watersheds starting in the eastern Catskill Mountains. It's scenic and historic. It starts (or ends) at Roscoe, N. Y. in Sullivan County where the famous Beaverkill trout stream flows along NYS Rt. 17. It climbs into the Catskill Park state preserve. The highest elevation in this area is about 3000 feet above sea level. The two-lane blacktop road drops down into the rugged and rocky East Branch of the Delaware River, past the Pepacton Reservoir dam (one of several large upstate lakes created for New York City water supply) and through the little village of Downsville.

About ten miles west over forested and sparsely farmed land, it winds down the steep eastern slope of the West Branch of the Delaware. Here at Walton in Delaware County, this river turns south into a narrow valley. It turns again below the Cannonsville Reservoir near Deposit (named for a place where logs were stockpiled in winter in preparation for spring rafting down-river to Philadelphia); then, southeast to join the East Branch at Hancock, N. Y. on the other side of the river from Pennsylvania.

From Walton, Rt. 206 climbs out of the Delaware watershed. After about 15 miles over several smaller valleys, with wooded and small dairy-farm landscapes, it crosses into the Susquehanna River watershed. Then, it tracks off the plateau and down a rolling terrace. At the valley floor, the road crosses I-88, and across the bridge and through Bainbridge.

Fire flies flash their tiny lights on the mowed area in front of our 30-foot travel trailer and in the low vegetation at the base of the silver maple trees. Except for the bridge traffic and its lamp lights, one could imagine the Iroquois Indians camping at this site.

Duane Gifford Memorial 5K Run/1-Mile Walk Held August 16, 2008

The Duane Gifford Memorial 5K Run/1-Mile Walk, held August 16th, 2008, was an even bigger success than the organizers had originally hoped. The event, planned as a benefit for the family of Duane M. Gifford, the Highway Supervisor for the Town of Masonville, drew more than 200 participants and supporters, including several of Gifford's classmates from the Sidney High Class of 1988, which celebrated its 20th reunion the same day. The benefit was planned to coincide with the reunion. helped organize the event, said, "I was pleased to be able to help organize as well as participate in this event. The community support from both the Sponsors as well as the participants was fantastic and made me have a greater appreciation for growing up in the Sidney area." Sharp continued, "I was really touched by all the work the members of our class had done to put the event together. What happened to Duane was a terrible tragedy, but it gave a lot of people a chance to show a lot of character. It set such a positive tone for the day. When you haven't seen some people in two decades, seeing them at their best is a great way to get reintroduced."

Negri and the other organizers of the event were overwhelmed by the community's generosity, noting how eager local business and organizations were to offer sponsorships, donations and services. They offer their gratitude to everyone who contributed to the success of the event.

An Annual Event

"Class of '88--Annual Run/Walk for Charity" is going to be held at Keith Clark Park, Saturday July 18th at 9am. Registration will be in advance and on race day. The charity is still to be determined Please check the alumni website www.sidneyalumni.org for the registration form.

Scrapbook Links

By Joelene Wood Cole, '70 Scrapbooking is a popular hobby. Most people concentrate on putting together a scrapbook about their own lives or a specific subject of interest. However, Florence K. Waters appointed herself as class historian and compiled a scrapbook filled with pictures, news clippings, letters, postcards and other data that she obtained from members of her class or their parents. Her scrapbook is titled Sidney High School Through The Years With The Class Of 1935.

When I first opened the scrapbook I just looked at the Reflector picture and the name at the top of the page designated for each of the forty one graduates. I went back to read more about four individuals because of their links to my school experiences. Philip DeRock's son, Steve, and Walter Johnson's son, Pete, graduated with me in 1970. Although there was no mention of Steve or Pete in the scrapbook there were pictures of their older siblings- Phyllis DeRock and Dave, Kris, and Charlotte Johnson. Mildred Marr Verzaro had been a teacher at Pearl Street Elementary School when I was a student there. Dominic Spinelli's wife, Emily was my high school English teacher. It was interesting to see the details of their lives as they transformed from young folks just out of school to adults with jobs and families.

I was intrigued about the woman who had decided to keep track of her classmates so I read her pages. Miss Waters had been a piano teacher in Sidney and Bainbridge. I was surprised to learn that my mother, Jacqueline Dunshee and my cousin, Eugene Palombo had taken lessons from her from 1944-1947. My mother had never mentioned this so I called E.J. to ask him about it. He told me that my great-grandmother paid for Jackie's lessons but she never played the piano again after her last recital at age fourteen. I was excited to find out this tidbit of information about my mom's teen years.

While reading Miss Waters' story I discovered there was a Sidney Alumni Association during the 1940's and 1950's. An annual banquet was held in the school cafeteria in June. A newspaper clipping from June 24, 1950 states "a standing date for this event in years to come has been set for the Saturday preceding Commencement week".

Historic Throws For Sale

Looking for a special gift for a current or former resident of Sidney? How about buying a handsome cotton throw from the Sidney Historical Association?

This throw is available at the Sidney Historical Association

Scholarship Winners' Update Daniel Bailey, Class of 2000

I graduated from the University of North Alabama, Florence AL, in 12/2004, summa cum laude, first in my class. My

B.S. degree is in Physics with a minor in Mathematics. I Married Leah K. White in March 2005. Leah has a B.A. in French, and is currently practicing cosmetology. I have attended SUNY at Buffalo since August 2005, in a Ph.D. program in Physics. I have taught Physics as a Teaching Assistant and as a Lecturer at both SUNY Buffalo and Buffalo

State College. I earned my M.S. degree in Physics January 2009. I am currently finishing my Ph.D. in Physics, with graduation expected in January 2011. My Ph.D. work is in Radiation Physics, studying the applications of physics in fighting cancer with external beam radiation therapy.

In fact, two of Gifford's classmates placed in their race categories, including a first place win in Adult Male by Regan Sharp. Said Sharp, "It was important for me to do well because the run was in honor of Duane. I wanted to make a good show as a representative of his class. I have nothing but fond memories of Duane his sly wit, his creativity, his authenticity. The best tribute I could offer was to run well as his classmate." Dave DuMond, one of the event organizers and another of Gifford's classmates, added, "The turnout and success of the event is a testament to the kind of man Duane was and what he represents in each of our lives. His story makes you want to become a better father and husband, and reminds us to appreciate every minute we spend with our family and friends."

Another of Gifford's classmates, Sarah Negri, finished third in the Adult Female category. Negri, who also After reading the chronicles of the other thirty six classmates I noticed another school link. The following four female graduates taught in the Sidney School system: Ellafern Gifford Conklin, Mildred Marr Verzaro, Dorothy Simons Ruland, and Margaret Youngs Morse. They comprised ten percent of the class of 1935.

Reading this class history gave me some insight into what life was like for this group of Sidney graduates. Some people stayed in Sidney and worked at Scintilla or other local businesses while others moved away to work elsewhere. Perhaps you would enjoy looking at this scrapbook to see if there are any links to your life. It is housed at the Sidney Historical Association museum which is open Tuesdays 1-4 p.m. and Thursdays 9-11:30 a.m. or by appointment by calling Erin Andrews at 607-435-5452.

Class of 1959

Class of 1944 Will Gather for 65th

The Class of 1944 will be celebrating our 65th reunion this year on Saturday July 18th. We would love to have each of our classmates send us information about yourselves including your current mailing address, phone number, email address, etc. If you have any questions or do not receive a mailing regarding the reunion by the time you receive the Reflections newsletter, it means that we don't have your current address, so please contact:

57th Reunion for the Class of 1952

The Class of 1952 will meet this summer for our 57th reunion. On Saturday evening (July 18th 2009) we will have dinner, starting at 4:30 PM. Dinner location will be determined as soon as we hear from our class members. The balance of the weekend we will participate in the All Alumni activities.

It's very important that we know the approximate number of classmates that might be with us so we can properly plan the dinner. So please notify any one of the planning committee:

> Wayne King 607/967-8881 or 910/287-3888 Wking2@stny.rr.com Helen Rosenkranz 607/723-3880 Jrosenk104@aol.com Tom Rogers 760/480-0610 rrtr@sbcglobal.net

We are considering the Barons Inn near Greene, NY. We need to know your plans in order to make arrangements. We will contact everyone directly, but only if we have your correct email or snail mail address. It would be great if everyone could attend!! Please try to include a visit to Sidney in your summer plans. Hope to see most of you in Sidney this summer. And please respond to one of the committee members!

Class of 1954—55th Reunion Plans

The Class of '54 will have an anniversary dinner at the Old Mill on Saturday night, July 18, 2009. If you have not received any contact from the class, please contact Donna Juckette Whallon, 4016 Pine Hill Road, Unadilla, Newe York. The Class will participate in the other events of Alumni Weekend.

Class of 1959 50th Reunion

Grab your 1959 Reflector and join us for an evening of fun and nostalgia as the mighty fine Class of '59 celebrates our 50th class reunion!

Our roast beef and turkey buffet dinner will be July 18, 2009 at the Sidney Moose Lodge, 20 East Main Street. Festivities start with a social hour at 5 PM (cash bar) with dinner at 6 PM. Cost will be $15 per person with the Class picking up part of the tab.

Once again, our Class will be participating in the Alumni Weekend activities starting with the Golf Tournament on Friday, July 17 ( registration form can be found on the Alumni website www.sidneyalumni.org) and the Friday evening icebreaker at the VFW on West Main Street at 8 PM.

We hope you are able to attend and look forward to sharing a night of fun with you. A list of accomodations is available to anyone who requests it.

Our 50th Reunion is a major milestone and to make this a success, volunteers are needed. Let me know where and how you are willing to help. The place and menu are set, so let's get going with some great ideas for an outstanding celebration!

Class of 1964 Plans for 45th Reunion

Well, we are working on the BIG NUMBERS!! 45 years since we graduated from SCHS. We are having a gathering on the All Class Reunion weekend, July 17, 18 and 19, 2009.

Class of 1969—40 Years!!

The SCS class of 1969 is now planning their 40th class reunion to coincide with Alumni weekend July 17-19, 2009. The committee has selected the Sidney Masonic Temple for a class party on Saturday evening July 18th. We are in the process of securing a caterer and entertainment. Doug Elliott and his wife, Roxanne have offered their home located on Pine Hill Road for an outdoor Sunday afternoon picnic.

The committee is looking for any and all classmates who are interested in either helping with the planning details or attending the class party and picnic. All responses are directed to any of the following: Arnie Jump (ajump@stny.rr.com ), Chris Bidwell Blincoe ( cblincoe@frontiernet.net ), Irene Shofkom Williams (607-783-2403), Doug Elliott (607-563-8318).

Class of 1974

This class has no formal reunion plans but interested classmates can contact one another (using alumni website information) and use the Alumni Weekend framework to plan to meet.

Class of 1979 Will Celebrate 30 Years The Class of 1979 will celebrate their 30th class reunion and Sharon 'Stilson' Bakerman. Anyone with information on these classmates is asked to contact Jill "Curtis" Brazee at 563-1604 or Lori "Booth" Collins at 563-8755.

Reunion committee meeting dates and times are also posted on the website. All classmates are invited to join us at these meetings! Make your plans now so you can join us in July!

8pm: plan to attend Alumni activities at the Moose Lodge.

Class of 1989-20 Years!

We will be having our reunion in conjunction with Alumni weekend, July 17-19, 2009. We will be having an event Saturday, 7/18, in the afternoon (what & where are to be determined). Saturday evening we will be having a dinner/dance at the American Legion in Sidney. We are still in the process of pricing out the catering and DJ options. In determining our potential budget, it would be helpful if people could let us know if they think they will be coming. Even if it's a maybe we would like to hear from you.

We are sending out emails periodically to keep everyone updated and also using Facebook.com. Within the Facebook.com website we have created a group for our class, Sidney High School Class of 1989. So far we have 40 members. It's a great way for us to get back in touch prior to seeing each other in July and we are posting reunion information there as well.

We still need to locate several classmates. If anyone has contact information for any of the following people please forward it onto Kelly (Felske) Hanson at khanson15@comcast.net. So far the feedback has been very positive and we're expecting a good turnout.

Saturday morning 7 to 10 AM is the Nature Trail Walk with our own Mary Anne Maynard Cramton manning the table, a pancake breakfast at the Elks Lodge and March of the Classes at 11 AM (and we will be the "starring" class so please join us!) There will be an Alumni Volleyball Tournament and Open Houses at the Historical Room, Alumni Room and the present High School during the afternoon. Our dinner will cap off the evening. SCSAA will sponsor an event at the Moose Lodge following our dinner. This is a great opportunity to see familiar faces from other graduating years.

Sunday morning features the Memorial service where we honor and remember our deceased classmates. This is held in front of the Nature Trail on River Sreet at 10:30 AM, Sunday, July 19. Please plan to attend this tribute to those we have lost. Bob Merrill has volunteered to read these classmate's names at the Memorial service. The Sunday All Alumni luncheon is at the Firemen's Training Center on River Street and will begin at 11 AM with luncheon/program beginning at 11:45.

during SCSAA weekend. Friday, July 17 we will meet at the Sidney American Legion for an ice breaker beginning at 7:00 p.m. This promises to be a great time to reminisce and share a laugh or two. We welcome all faculty members and members of classes above or below us to join the fun on Friday night!

The morning of Saturday, July 18, we plan to participate in the March of the Classes. All classmates should meet at Alumni Field on the high school hill at 11:00 a.m.

Our buffet dinner will be held on Saturday, July 18 at the Sidney Elks Lodge. Social hour with cash bar and snacks will start at 6:00 p.m. Dinner will begin at 7:00 p.m. Go to our class website: www.classcreator.com/ Sidney-NY-1979 for the complete menu, price and payment options.

We are still searching for a few classmates: Thomas Black, Roxanne 'Butler' Richardson, Debra 'Decker' Hughs, Jim Geffers, Lee Anne Hoffman, James Howard, Carmella Moccia, Mercedes Pelaez, Bonnie Pierce

because of his dedication and commitment to Catholic Scouting. Those that know John know that these were all well deserved.

The Military Officers Association of America presented John with the Leadership Excellence Award for 2008. Each year they select one US Army Reserve Field Grade Officer who has distinguished himself in military and community service. LTG Jack Stultz, Commander U.S. John started his affiliation with Catholic Scouting in 1971 Army Reserve Command, stated that "This recognition attests to the qualities associated with the Citizen Soldier in service to the U.S. Army and the local community. John, I commend and applaud you for a job well done."

The other award John received was the MG Nathan Towson Regimental Medallion. The Medallion bears the name and Baltimore, MD. In 1983, John became a member of of MG Towson who was Paymaster General from 1819 -1821 and 1822 – 1854. The Medallion is presented by the Finance Corps Association and recognizes exceptional achievement or exemplary service.

Accomplishments must clearly distinguish candidates from their peers and honor the mission and traditions of the Finance Corps. John had distinguished himself during his last nine years of military service in such critical positions as the Theater Finance and Accounting Officer for Operation Iraqi Freedom 1 and for the 226th Finance Command in Europe, the 336th Finance Command Deputy Commander and finally as the 336th Finance Management Center Director.

actions; effective management of the crew, piloting of the aircraft, and airspace surveillance the patients were successfully picked up and evacuated to the next level of care in a timely manner. ... This mission was executed with less than 10 minutes of planning time and executed to a non-improved landing surface. These exceptional risks assumed by CW4 MacDonald are beyond what is normally asked of, expected or approved for other aviation assets in country and were accepted for this mission only after learning of the criticality of the injured soldiers. Chief Warrant Officer Four Patrick MacDonald's actions are in keeping with the finest traditions of military service and reflect distinct credit upon him, Multi-National Corps-Iraq, and the United States Army."

Bert Anderson '66 Working in Haiti

Bertel Anderson graduated from Sidney Central School in 1966. He enlisted in the U.S. Air Force and served with the Air Force Security Service for 4 years mostly on the island of Crete. After the military he worked on a remote site assignment in Turkey for the General Electric Co. for 3 years. He received his A.A.S. Degree from Erie Community College and a B.S. in Industrial Technology from SUNY Buffalo. For the next 30+ years he was employed in manufacturing, 27 years with the Swedish firm SKF as a Supervisor, Unit Manager and a Business Unit Manager. He and his wife of 35 years, Roberta, have two grown children living in N.Y.C. Carl is a graduate of Sarah Lawrence College and Rachel, a graduate of the University of Minnesota.

After numerous short-term mission trips to Haiti working on construction projects, mobile medical clinics and education projects they answered the call to become full time missionaries . They took early retirements from their respective jobs and moved to Haiti in December 2007. They are currently the Directors of the Service International Foundation Medical Clinic in Croix des Bouquets, Haiti. Their clinic serves the growing population of the area with basic health care, health education, and Christian fellowship

WHO KNEW?

Haitian NGO title for Christian Service International. Haitian law reserves the use of the term "Christian" to only Churches. Our clinic was established 10 years ago and since then it has served about 45,000 different individuals. We direct a staff of 14 that includes two doctors, three nurses, a pharmacy technician, a part-time pharmacist, three lab technicians, a clerk and a house staff. All are Haitians trained in Haiti. We also have a part-time dentist from the Dominican Republic that volunteers her services two day a week.

The clinic is open Monday through Friday from 8 A.M. until all 60 to 80 patients a day are seen, usually closing after 2 P.M. Our clinic charges fees but our costs are far below the norm of the area. The initial visit to the doctor is $1.75 U.S. and a follow-up visit is $1.20. A typical visit that includes an exam, some lab work and a couple prescriptions costs on average $6.00 however, no one is turned away due to a lack of funds. We have an account called "Pennies- For-The-Poor" that we access if needed.

We also host surgical teams about 3 times per year. These teams utilize our surgical suite to perform about 30 ambulatory surgeries in 5 days. The most common surgeries are for hernias. The teams stay with us in our living quarters that are above the clinic. We also support the 8 to 10 mobile medical teams that come from the States through Christian Service International by purchasing and preparing their medicines for dispensing to the 700+ patients to tell people that if they feel so strongly about service in their own back yards maybe that is their calling. Very politely what I wish I could say is, if you talk the talk, are you walking the walk?

How can you help?

If you are interested in helping Haiti there is plenty that can be done. Haiti has suffered for centuries with unstable governments, invasions, corruption, embargos and horrific natural disasters. Four hurricanes last year destroyed about 60% of the crops. The presence of 8000 UN troops has had some effect on crime and political disturbances but does little to help with the health and welfare of the average Haitian. The most effective aid comes from the various NGOs (NON-GOVERNMENTAL ORGANIZATIONS). Support for our clinic, "Pennies- For-The-Poor", or for us personally can be made through a donation to:

It's around 4:30 A.M and the hundreds of rooster voices in the country side are at full power with their daily morning songs. This will continue until the sun is fully up, each rooster trying to outdo the others. Since it is Friday and livestock market day the next noise will be the cows, goats, horses and numerous piggy's protesting vigorously about being led to market. Selling livestock is one of the few ways Haitians can acquire cash to spend on other food and necessities. It's not an unpleasant way to be woken up. The truth is that I never wake up with that old feeling of dread I used to have when I was facing another day of work in the "real world". Haiti offers something new and different every day. In Haiti the possible is impossible but the impossible is possible.

Neither my wife of myself ever expected to be spending our remaining working years here but when you ask God for guidance in your life, and you accept what is offered, anything is possible. We enjoyed working in Haiti on short term mission trips and so far full- time has proved to be just as rewarding.

Our Mission:

Roberta and I are the Directors of the Service International Foundation Health Clinic. SIF, as it is called, is the they will see in some of the more remote underserved areas.

We have just received funding for a Public Health Nurse and are working out the details for that position. We visualize this person doing Health education in the remote areas, worming children and providing free vaccinations and vitamins.

Why Haiti?

If you ask Roberta and I this question we can give you a huge list of statistics that includes the facts that 1 in 5 children here don't make it to 5 years old, that life expectancy is 15 years less than in the States, that maternal mortality rates are 60 times the U.S. rate because of the lack of facilities and Haitian women's inability to afford hospital deliveries. But usually people ask us this question because they don't understand why we don't serve in our own back yards. "There is so much need in the U.S. Why don't you serve here instead of Haiti?" This is a question we have been asked and every other missionary around the world has probably been asked. I respond by saying that we did just that through various means for many years and coming to Haiti for us was a calling. I try Christian Service International 1714 West Royale Drive Muncie, IN 47304-2240 765-286-5773

Our participation would not involve fund raising on behalf of the cemetery association. We agreed that we would make a donation to the overall project but would not serve as the chief fund raiser. Towards that end the SCSAA made a $1,000 donation towards the development of the park. The sub-committee is developing ideas for the design of our memorial and once that is complete, the sub-committee will conduct a fund raising campaign to be used exclusively for the Alumni Veterans Memorial The sub-committee has also begun research for names to be included on the memorial. We will be reaching out to the entire alumni community to support this project over the next year.

Membership:

Increasing membership became one of the top goals last year, which prompted two industrious members of the Membership Committee into action. Deb Puffer and Karen Cycon Dermody conducted an "e-mailathon" Over 600 people were contacted, yielding 147 new paid members and almost $1,500. Congratulations to Deb and Karen, who will continue their efforts. Membership dues are our chief source of revenue but current membership is less than 20% of the alumni roster. This is not sufficient to sustain certain financial needs, e.g., publishing "Reflections".

Alumni Weekend:

Alumni Weekend continues to maintain its status as the key component of the Association from which other components were derived and fostered and it is deserving of our full support.

Alumni Weekend 2008 was a success and feedback from attendees was positive. For example,

- great venues (everyone agreed that the VFW did a spectacular job in hosting the Friday & Saturday night events)
- great band ( the feedback received was "Best Band Ever")
- Financial success (Golf Tournament realized a surplus of $4,000)
- Caricature Artist—hit of the weekend very popular with the crowd
- very moving and inspirational Wall of Fame Induction Ceremony

The low turnout was discussed by the Reunion committee and their consensus was that the current economic situation, causing higher travel costs, was the driving factor influencing the attendance. Ideas were advanced for refining some of the events, expanding others and adding some new ones, which were submitted to the 2009 Reunion Committee for review and consideration.

"Reflections" Newsletter

"Reflections" remains the most popular undertaking of the SCS Alumni Association and it maintained its status in 2008. There is no doubt in my mind that this is one of the best publications of its kind. Maintaining "Reflections" at the level we have all come to expect requires that we all get involved. Some of the best issues of the last 10 years were published this past year. Everybody loves "Reflections" and looks forward to its publication each spring and fall. However, it is becoming a struggle to keep "Reflections" fresh and innovative. Compiling the contents of the entire paper is the work of two individuals, the Editor and Assistant Editor. Maintaining the roster, a big job done by Deb Puffer, is the basis for the mailing list and for the contact list on the website. The printing is overseen by one person. The number of contributors to the paper has fallen off significantly over the last several years, and that's a shame because it's YOUR paper, and ABOUT YOU. The SCS Alumni are large and diverse group with a wide range of experiences and interests. Many of the experiences and interests are briefly mentioned in the news in Alumni Update. Let's hear more. Let's share each other's good times and learn coping strategies from each other's challenges.

section. As technology has advanced, so has our website. The latest popular tool of the website is "pay pal" which allows you to pay your dues online and is a convenient way to participate in our latest fund raising activity. If you have not been on our Website (www.sidneyalumni.org), take a look. You will be amazed. And to think this is all done by the single efforts of our Webmaster, Ray Taylor. Our biggest challenge is how to clone Ray.

Honoring our inductees:

Through the "Wall of Fame" and "Sports Hall of Fame" the SCSAA pays tribute to our distinguished alumni and educators and recognizes our talented athletes. We need more participation from the membership to assure that a good cross-section of our alumni is represented. So far we seem to have plenty of names of candidates, but have we have we missed some quality candidates in the process? This is why it is especially important that we hear from all of you about possible nominees.

We are working with school officials to identify the proper place of distinction in the school to display the plaques of our "Wall of Fame" and "Sports Hall of Fame" inductees for posterity. As soon as this process is completed, we will have an unveiling ceremony followed by an assembly to introduce some of our Inductees to the current student body. This will definitely serve to strengthen our relationship with the school.

Financial and Human Resources Challenges and Possible Solutions

Most of the challenges facing the Association, you have read about previously and they continue to confront the Association. The most important of the challenges to the Association involve the scarcity of financial and human resources. While under no circumstances will we deviate from our mission and founding purposes, we must find creative ways to refresh the various activities, events and initiatives – that creativity will best come from you.

Financial Status:

Our fund balance as of December 2008 was $35,600 up from $27,000 in 2007. The entire increase in funds is restricted to the Kristina Germond Memorial Scholarship Fund. Operationally we continue to operate at a small deficit, which we will need to be addressed at some point in the near future. Some of the drivers of the deficit are:

- 1. A drop in membership dues
- 2. A substantial increase in the mailing and printing cost of "Reflections"
- 3. An increase in the entertainment cost of Alumni Weekend
- 4. An increase in our publicity costs
- 5. The various costs associated with creating first class events and a first rate organization

What are our financial challenges and possible financial solutions?

We cannot continue to maintain a deficit over the long term without jeopardizing the financial integrity of the Association. At the same time, we have created a first class organization that requires a certain level of financial needs to sustain it. So the revenue side is where we must primarily focus our attention. Some of the issues that need to be addressed and debated by the Association for increasing revenue involve:  So let's hear from you.

What are our Human Resource Challenges and Potential Solutions?

I have been talking about the "burn out factor" for several years now. Our current corps of volunteers cannot continue to function at such an intense pace forever. There has been fallout but for the most part the reason the Association has been able to sustain is because our core group has been able to persevere. But how long can this continue? Possible solutions could be obtained by:

- 1. Attracting general Volunteers to serve on all our major committees to minimize the 'burn out factor" and provide a source of new and creative ideas.
- 2. Identifying potential new members for our Board of Director
- 3. Identifying potential candidates to serve as "Reflections Editor" or as an "Assistant Editor and Webmaster or Assistant Webmasters. . We are severely understaffed in these areas and the current staff cannot continue at the extraordinary pace that is required. If we lost any of these key positions it would deal a devastating blow to the Association.

We have recognized this situation for a number of years now but it has not received the attention by the Board and membership that it demands. Our quest for developing effective solutions will take on a new sense of urgency. It would be great if some of you could become part of the solution.

Expense cutting as a means to reduce our deficit:

So far we have focused our attention on increasing our revenue and increasing our human resources as a means to attack our deficit. The deficit could be balanced by addressing the other side of the equation: the expense side. I take pride in the way we have been able to control expenses for the most part. However, as we introduced new initiatives and grew in stature as a first class organization, so did our expenses. In this year's budget we were able to reduce the deficit by postponing some of our initiatives and purchases. We have taken a hard look at all our expenses and we have tried to implement expense reductions were we could without sacrificing the high standards that we have established.

The Association grew in a systematic fashion and not haphazardly. We did not introduce a new initiative until we had the necessary resources to take it on. Each activity and events initiated by the Association are part of the original vision. At this time it is apparent that we cannot reduce our cost much further without eliminating or scaling down some of our activities and events. It can be done but not in my opinion without sacrificing the quality of the Association or taking a whole new approach to the delivery of some of our services. We are open to creative suggestions on ways to reduce costs.

One idea to cut costs is to deliver "Reflections" electronically and eliminate the paper version and its associated costs – 20% of our total expense budget. To many of the Alumni Community, "Reflections" is the Association and making such a major change could negatively impact the organization. But it is an idea and will be an issue to be included in our strategic plan debate. As mentioned elsewhere, we now have 'paypal" capabilities. Drop everything right now and go to our website (www.sidneyalumni.org) and use your debit or credit card to pay your dues.

Alumni Website:

56,500 hits and counting. The Alumni Website has become an integral component of the Association. It too is a very popular activity of the Association and is a great source of information. The Website serves as a very effective tool of the Association in promoting our events and activities. It was the website that was responsible for our success in raising money for the 2006 flood victims and in raising $15,000 through the sale of raffle tickets. The Alumni Website has all the current information pertaining to our scheduled events. All our events are documented in the photo gallery

- 1. Developing an aggressive membership campaign to focus on increasing our membership base
- 2. Consideration of increasing dues to $15
- 3. Instituting a cover charge for our Saturday Night entertainment at Alumni Weekend
- 4. Developing alternative fund raising ideas to supplement or replace dues as the prime source of revenue
- 5. Finding popular items for the Alumni Store that will expand revenue through the sale of merchandise
- 6. Seeking endowments for the Association
- 7. Other: You fill in the blank

All of these potential solutions will be explored as to their viability, and as will other ideas as they arise. The Association through the Board of Directors does not have all the answers. We will continue to conduct surveys to seek your opinions. We are a grass roots organization and have been most successful in executing ideas that were submitted by our base.

Strategic Overview for the SCSAA:

"Are we on the right track and where are we going from here?" One of the prime roles of the Board is to help set the direction of the Association and to identify potential initiatives that advance the purposes of the Association. As we mature as a Board, it becomes even more important to address this and that is the reason why it was established as a specific objective this year. I have always believed this is a discussion the Board must have routinely so that we are all on the same page; however, time is always an obstacle.

Basically I envisioned a brain-storming session to formulate ideas on where the Association should be headed, how do we get there, is our vision on target or do we need to change our vision to fulfill our founding purposes? Take a break away from the day-to-day op-(Continued on page 11)

eration of the Association, take a deep breath, and focus on the big picture, including taking a look at our organizational structure and creating ideas and stimulating discussion for future consideration.

Chairing the Strategic Overview Committee was Director Jim McIntyre's first assignment when he joined the Board. I saw the opportunity to move this agenda item forward since he was new to the Board and would bring a new perspective. The purpose of the Committee was to develop the ideas that could serve to facilitate the brainstorming session with all Directors involved, and from which a Strategic Plan would evolve.

Jim has made extraordinary efforts in moving this forward. Already, one of the ideas has been enacted (the Alumni Veterans Memorial).

We welcome your thoughts and ideas as we develop our strategic plan. Your feedback can be sent to the Board via their emails (see website) or via snail mail to the Association address.

Other challenges to the Association:

While under no circumstances we can not deviate from our mission and founding purposes, we must find creative ways to refresh the various activities, events and initiatives from time to time or else the hidden threat of "boredom or complacency" could seep into the Association. Although it sounds obscure, it is a very real threat to the Association. .

If our most loyal supporters ever became bored with our activities and stop attending we could lose all the momentum that we have built over the last 10 years. While our goal is to create events and activities that continue to inspire and excite, we have noticed that participation is down in some area .. We recognize the danger this presents and actions need to be taken to reverse the trend. So we are making a concerted effort to refresh and update some of the major events this year with particular attention to Alumni Weekend. This is easier said than done especially because of the deficiency of volunteers needed to implement the changes. But that being said the limited number of volunteers that who have stepped forward are committed to make it happen.

In a prime effort to refresh our events, some of the changes that will be implemented at this year's Alumni Weekend include:

- Moving the "March of the Classes to Alumni Field
- Hosting a Saturday late afternoon barbecue for those non-anniversary Classes attendees
- Hosting a Casino night in conjunction with our Saturday evening festivities
- Adding a bowling Tournament to our schedule of events
- Introducing a new venue for Saturday Evening (Moose Club)
- Streamlining the format at the Alumni Luncheon

So for those of you who have been faithfully attending Alumni Weekend over the last 10 years you will experience a new look to the Weekend.. We hope that our efforts will remove the hidden danger of boredom and recreate the excitement that you had when you attended for the first time.

2004 Alycia Zieno, $500 2005 Alexander Papastrat, $1000 2006 Caitlin Oliver, $1500 2007 Shawn Innes, $1500 2008 Connor Hornbeck, $1500

As you can see, the amount has increased since its inception and the Class of '74 is proud that they can keep the award at $1500 - at least for now. We would like to appeal to the community, to anyone who knew Reggie, her family, and / or the recipients of the award to donate any amount to give into the fund to keep the award alive. It not only honors Reggie's life but also helps to keep her vision alive as well as to assist a deserving student to pursue their education in the field of science, the field that Reggie was motivated to pursue.

This scholarship is given to a graduating senior who has been accepted into a two- or four-year college or university to further their education in the field of science. The student also exemplifies integrity, leadership, community involvement, and congeniality. Reggie's scholarship is awarded based on scholastic achievement and an essay that is submitted and evaluated by a selection committee made up of members of the Class of '74.

Your tax-deductible donation can be submitted to Dollars for Scholars: Sidney Federal Credit Union, 42 Union St., Sidney, NY 13838. Be sure to reference Regina Reynolds Scholarship Fund. A reminder, too, that many companies will match your donation. The Class of '74 wishes to thank everyone for their generosity in the past and for your future support. Thank you!

While relocating with her husband for his school and work, she managed to put together a course of study while raising a family and also working outside her home. She attained excellence both in academic life and as a practitioner in her field. She received her M.A. from Duke University (Counseling) in 1970 and her Ph.D. from the University of Kentucky in 1977.

Most recently, she was Assistant Professor of Psychology at Virginia Union University in Richmond, VA. She has also worked with emotionally disturbed families, was a team member of the Task Force to Organize School Psychology Services, State of Kentucky, and indeed wrote the State of Kentucky School Psychology Examinations. She co-authored, with her husband, and Robert and Alice Evans, The Casebook for Family Living, in 1977. She has been active in her Church and was the convener for the first Kentucky Chapter of the National Organization for Women.

Over the years she has been tireless in her service to others wherever in the world she and her husband have lived. Her volunteer work and her career choices have consistently reflected her service ethic.

In his letter of nomination, Jim Axtell, '59 (Wall of Fame, '05) said "she is, in fact, a consummate homemaker, cook, hostess, mother, and now grandmother. Family is a big priority for her and always has been. Which puts in perspective the extraordinary investment in time and energy she has made outside the home in social work, education, race relations, counseling, church, and social reform. She is a doer, and Energizer Bunny of purpose and selfless altruism."

Regina "Reggie" Reynolds Scholarship Update

by Sue (Fessenden) Jones, '74

This scholarship was established by Regina's graduating class, the Class of 1974, and was awarded for the first time to a member of the Class of 2004. Following is a list of the recipients, the criteria for winning the award, and an appeal to keep the scholarship going.

The recipients of the award for the first five years are:

Today Steve and Les own 4 lumber mills, employ 140 workers and co-own the largest lumber mill complex in New York State. Respect of his business colleagues and the business community led to Wagner Lumber being honored as the Business of the Year.

Because of his success and accomplishments, Steve has been committed to giving back. His love of his hometown has led him to become a major supporter of the Alumni Association, The Sidney Alumni Basketball events, the Sidney Boys and Girls Club as well as the Sidney Congregational Church. He also supports the Tioga County Boys and Girls Club.

He has taken his family on a volunteer mission to Cuba, and has supported the Educate the Children program (to fund school opportunities for low cast girls in Nepal and offer farming support for men and financial assistance to women who are starting small businesses to support of our family at the wedding. I'm the shortest one (Ha their families) and he and his family traveled there last year to volunteer.

Rob Walsh '87: NYFD Paramedic and Pipe Band Member

I joined the Fire Department of New York in April of 2000; first as an Emergency Medical Technician and then as a Paramedic. One of the things that I liked about working for the Departmentt is their commitment to honoring their fallen members. Whenever a member dies while serving the public, members are asked to pay their respects by attending the wake and funeral in full dress uniform. Seeing hundreds of blue uniformed co-workers lined up outside a funeral, honoring their fallen comrades is an awe inspiring sight.

The only thing more respectful is hearing the sullen thumb of a bass drum as the Bagpipe Band escorts the casket to the church. Then the pipes and drums combine to play a simple Amazing Grace. Those moments, as the casket is carried into the church and the members reflect on the passing of their friend, leaves not a dry eye in the house.

After 9/11, I attended a lot of funerals for firefighters and paramedics who had made that ultimate sacrifice and I was always left breathless after the performance of the pipe band. It was that feeling that made me want to join the Bagpipe band, but because I wasn't a firefighter, I wasn't able to join the Department's pipe band.

First, let me give you a little background. New York City's Emergency Medical Services used to be a separate entity but merged with the Fire Department in 1996. Though equal in some respects, we're still very different and separate departments. One of the things that is kept separate is the Department's Pipe and Drum Band.

All that changed in 2006 when two EMT's, Don Riley and John Manning, decided to form a band for EMS members ONLY. Both Don and John had been playing bagpipes for most of their lives in local community bands. They shared a common goal of making a band that would serve the EMT's, paramedics, and their officers. Word spread about the band and quickly coworkers with the same ideas joined. Since many people were like myself (I didn't even play the recorder in third grade!!), they hired bagpipe and drum instructors.

The bagpipes are a difficult instrument to learn. You start by playing a canter (like a recorder) and eventually progress to the pipes. That process usually takes about

Inductees and Legacy Award Set for 7th Annual SCSAA Sports Hall of Fame

The 7th Annual Sidney Central School Alumni Association Sports Hall of Fame ceremonies during Homecoming Weekend will be historic in every sense of the word. You will definitely NOT want to miss the events!

Thursday October 1st, Friday October  $2^{nd}$  and Saturday October  $3^{rd}$  – Save the Dates! You'll agree that "historic" defines the 2009 SCSAA SHOF class when you read the profiles of the 2009 Inductees and the Legacy Award recipients.

SCSAA SHOF 2009 Inductees:

- Margaret Anne (Hager) Steinmiller' '53
- Asa Decker, '54

a year. Drumming is much easier. Most of the drummers play in rock bands and changing the tempo to that of playing a snare or tenor drum is an easy thing to master. It took me about six months to get the arrangements down.

Currently we have 20 pipers and 10 drummers. We could always use more but it's a good core group to pull from to play at our many events. The band provides the kilt, drums and uniform. The member has to buy the pipes, Glengarry (hat), hose (socks), spats (white things that cover the shoes), and flashes (red dangly things on the spats). To help pay for all that we have two annual fund raisers. In September we hold our Half Way to St Pat's Party. And after the NYC St. Pat's parade we host another party. (This year Deb Puffer '68, Blair Puffer '70, Peg Payne Phelps '68, Carol Thomas '87 and Joe Moran '87 were in attendance.)

During March we're paid to march in St Patrick's parades throughout the Tri State region. Our usual roster includes Mahopac, Throgs Neck, Rockaways, Hoboken, Bayshore, Lake Ronkokoma, Hampton Bays and Montauk. Until I joined I had no idea how many St Patrick's Day Parades there are!! I always thought that there was only one, on St Patrick's' Day! But starting with the last weekend of February until the end of March, you can find one on every weekend!! The party goes on all month long!!

We also draw a lot of financial support from our union,

Local 2507. The union recognizes us for helping to build morale of the EMS members. We would not be the success that we are now without the generous support of our union and our co-workers.

Besides the enjoyment of playing in parades, we are constantly called on to perform for members that have died while serving the city. I've personally played at the funerals of seven members who have passed away in the past three years. And because we are the ONLY all EMS band we have gone to play for other EMT's that were killed in the line of duty. In February we traveled up to Cape Vincent to play for an EMT who was shot by a patient. Last year we went to Antwerp, Ohio to play at the funeral for three EMT's who were killed when their ambulance was in an accident. Every year on September 11, we play at the memorial at our Training Academy in Fort Totten in Queens. During National EMS Week in May we perform at the NYS EMS Memorial in Albany, New York, and the National EMS Memorial in Roanoke, Virginia.

Along with weekly practice we have a pretty busy schedule. I'm very lucky that my wife, Jennifer, is supportive of this 'hobby.' Especially when she becomes a 'Band Widow' during the March weekends that I'm off marching. My five year old son, Bryce, isn't sure what to think or say when he sees me in my kilt. One day I had to pick him up from school and hadn't had time to change out of my kilt after leaving a funeral. His classmates' jaws were all wide open when they saw 'Bryce's Dad' come in dressed like 'Bryce's Mom.' On the uncomfortable ride home Bryce, in the nicest way that a five year old could think of, asked me not to wear my kilt to school again. I agreed. His friends still played with him the next day and I heard from all the parents 'the talk' that they had to give to their kids that night at dinner.

If you're more interested in seeing what a Sidney alum looks like wearing a kilt, or live in the New York City area and want to see us perform, feel free to check out our schedule on our website; www.fdnyemspipesanddrums.com. And if you're down in New York City for next year's St Patricks' Parade, join Deb & Blair Puffer, Peg Payne Phelps, Carol Thomas and Joe Moran at our after party!! And if you are going to ask THE question, the answer is NO, I don't.

Peggy Payne Phelps, '68, Rob Walsh, '87, Deb Woytek Puffer, '68, Blair Puffer, '70

Historic Point #3: Gerrie Stone, '64, is considered by SHOF charter member Tom Robertson and his assistant, 2006 SHOF inductee Bill Davidson, responsible for the rapid growth and success of Sidney's wrestling program. "Stoney" may never have won a state title, but he did set the bar high for future State champs at Sidney. He also was part of a National Collegiate Championship team while a top wrestler at the Division 1 powerhouse, Oklahoma State.

Historic Point #4: Mary Morrison's overall coaching is due, in large part, to the term "Lady Warrior" coming to vogue. Known in the 1970s as "Mrs. V" (Vredenburgh), Mary led her girls' teams in all varsity sports available to them at the time – field hockey, volleyball, and softball. She would later concentrate on field hockey and her Lady Warriors successfully competed at the high level offered by much bigger schools Edmeston. The SCSAA SHOF 2009 Inductees and Legacy Award recipients will be honored during half time. After the football game, a reception open to all alumni will be held at the VFW (corner of Suffolk and West Main Streets).

- We urge alumni coming back for Homecoming to attend other sporting events that may be available during the weekend, e.g., boys and girls' soccer, field hockey, girls' tennis, and golf.
- Saturday October 3, is the SCSAA SHOF Induction Ceremony and Dinner at the Elks Lodge on River St., Sidney, beginning with a social hour at 6pm.

Check the SCSAA Website (sidneyalumni.org) for more information. Tickets will be available during the July All-Alumni Weekend! Historic is the word we will use

- Gerrie Stone, '64
- Coach Mary Morrison

Historic Point #1: Margaret Anne Hager, '53. Margaret's athletic skills were impressive though she did not have the opportunity to play interscholastic sports and, therefore, had few researchable statistics. However, as a youth she excelled in Little League baseball long before Congress allowed girls to play baseball with boys. Even though she had no official softball team to compete on, she set a league record n the softball throw during a one -day girls' track and field meet. Later, she won numerous ladies' golf titles at the Sidney Golf and Country Club.

Historic Point #2: Asa Decker, '54, captained Sidney's football, baseball, and basketball teams. He continued in organized sports at Albany Business College in spite of an injury suffered during military duty. Asa's grit and determination were further evident in later years as he competed in the grueling 70-mile endurance race of the General Clinton Canoe Regatta. Many of his former teammates nominated their leader for the SHOF committee with an impressive write-in campaign.

in the area and across the state. In 1991, her team put it all together and they won the Class A New York State title. To this day it is the ONLY NYS championship won by a Sidney girls' sports team.

2009 SHOF Legacy Award

This year's Legacy Award winner is the 1964-65 Wrestling Team, who were undefeated and established perhaps the most successful mark at any NYS State Championship Wrestling Tournament. They were so successful, in fact, they have been inducted into the New York High School Wrestling Hall of Fame! That was in 1986, the same year as their coach, Tom Robertson, was inducted into the same hallowed Hall.

Homecoming Weekend and the SCSAA SHOF Events

Once again, the SCSAA SHOF Induction ceremonies will take place during SCS' Homecoming Weekend.

- Thursday October 1 is the first event a parade and bonfire.
- Friday October 2 is the Homecoming football game - Sidney versus Unadilla Valley/to describe the 2009 Sidney Alumni Sports Hall of Fame Induction Weekend. Come see why!

What the 2008 SCSAA Sports Hall of Fame Ceremonies Did For Our School

The 2008 SCSAA Sports Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony broke all records for attendance and funds raised. Its success enabled the SCSAA SHOF Committee to purchase two battery-operated portable scoreboards for the SCS Athletic Department, which were put to immediate use at the February 7 Midstate Athletic Conference wrestling Tournament, hosted by Sidney. The committee recently made the official presentation to the Board of Education and Administration. School Superintendent Sandy Cooper offered her thanks on behalf of the school district, remarking that she is "constantly amazed" what the Alumni Association is doing in support of the school and community, and for that we can ALL be proud!

My best friend Pat Hotaling Doolittle and I (Mary Anne Gleason Porter) have been best friends since 2nd grade. How many of us can say that? Maybe in Sidney there are lots of friendships like ours that have endured. This is possibly a "side effect" of growing up in a small community like Sidney. We have grown through the years together, always being there for each other, when times were tough, even though many times we lived thousands of miles apart. Sometimes we hadn't communicated for a year or two, but when we got together or talked on the phone, it was always as comfortable as if we just talked yesterday. Now we get together once or twice a year, and talk about our grandkids, husbands, and pets, aches and pains and getting old! It's great to have a friend like Pat! In the two pictures, here, I think that we haven't changed much, but I hope our sense of fashion has!! I just want to say Thanks, Pat for being my BFF (Best Friend Forever!)

Scotch Doubles Bowling Tournament to be held during Alumni Weekend

Jeff and Lynne Mazzerella of Twentieth Century Lanes in Sidney are hosting a Tourmament during Alumni Weekend in July which is open to all. Alums are encouraged to bowl a set of three games during the weekend. The lanes are open at 6:30pm on Thursday and at 1PM on Friday and Saturday. The cost is $10 per twosome.One of your party must be a SHS Alumnus. It is as easy as that. Report your scores to Jeff or Linda.

The winners will be decided and a cash prize will be awarded during the Alumni Luncheon on Sunday. Be sure and make some time for this event during your weekend. Jeff and Linda can be reached at 607-563-BOWL (2695) if there are any questions.

Results of Election of SCSAA Board of Directors 2009

Thanks to your votes, the 5 directors running for a new three year term were all elected. They are Doug Sheldon, Ann Philpott, Wayne King, Marty Reed and Bonnie Curtis.

In January, at the Annual Reorganizational Board Meeting of the Association, the following officers were elected to serve for a one year term: President: Terry Dermody, Vice President of Operations: Doug Sheldon, Vice President for Strategic Planning: Jim McIntyre, Vice President of Finance: Jon DeTemple, Corresponding Secretary: Deb Puffer, Recording Secretary: Jessica Wheeler, Treasurer: Wayne King, and Assistant Treasurer: Ann Mott.

1000 Books in 2009

The 1000 Book Challenge to provide books to the new High School library, continues with nearly 700 books donated so far. We would like to encourage you to bring a book along with you to Alumni Weekend and deposit it (with your name and class included somewhere with the book) at either of the socials, the golf club, or the All Class Reunion Luncheon. There will be a place to drop off the books at each of these venues as well as the Alumni Center, Room 319 at the Civic Center.

If you are having a reunion gathering with your class, you might make this a project and donate as a class. If you will not be attending any of the weekend festivities, you can send a book, or money to purchase one, to the Association address SCSAA, PO Box 2186, Sidney, New York. 13838.

Those bringing books or donating money will be recognized at the All Class Reunion Luncheon on Sunday July 19.Please help us make our goal and Bring a Book to Reunion Weekend.

In order to keep this list current—we urge you to contact us with any changes. Due to a lack of space, only one contact person per class is listed.

The SCSAA has a class roster that contains the names of all Sidney alumni. Your contact information is only as current as your membership. When you join or renew and send your contact information, it is entered in the roster and on the website unless, in the case of the latter, you indicate you do not want it posted. The future of Reflections depends on alumni maintaining their official membership

The list of Class Representatives has been updated and revised. Please check the list. Are you listed as the "Class Rep"? If so, is your contact information, i.e., name, address, phone number and email address, correct?

Is there no Class Rep for your class? Would you like to volunteer?

The membership form is in Reflections, and an abbreviated form is on the website. Membership is cheap – and it's about the only thing that is these days!
